

Appendix L. California Commercial Marine Fisheries Using a Restricted Access Program

Fishery	Species	Who establishes management authority (FMP)
Salmon	Coho, chinook, and pink salmon	PFMC (Salmon)
Herring	Pacific herring	Commission
Coastal pelagics	Northern anchovy, Pacific sardine, jack mackerel, Chub (Pacific) mackerel, market squid ^a	PFMC (Coastal Pelagic Species)
Nearshore finfish	Cabazon, monkeyface-eel (prickleback), kelp greenling, rock greenling, rockfishes (black-and-yellow, China, gopher, grass, kelp), California scorpionfish, California sheephead	Commission ^b (Nearshore)
Dungeness crab	Dungeness crab	Legislature
Cucumber ^c	California sea cucumber, warty sea cucumber	Commission
Lobster	California spiny lobster	Legislature
Spot prawn ^d	Spot prawn	Commission
Pink shrimp	Pacific ocean shrimp	Commission
Urchin	Purple sea urchin, red urchin	Commission
Finfish trap	All finfish south of Point Arguello	Commission
Drift gill net	Highly migratory species (e.g. sharks and swordfish)	PFMC (Highly Migratory Species)
Set gill net ^e	Nearshore species (e.g. white seabass and California halibut)	Legislature

^a Limited entry pending; This is a monitored species only. PFMC has deferred management of squid to the State as long as management is consistent with federal regulations.

^b Management authority pending

^c Trawl fishery for California sea cucumbers and dive fishery for warty sea cucumbers

^d Begins 2002/03

^e No new permits are being issued

PFMC=Pacific Fishery Management Council